

Maplewood Jewish Center hosts Purim parade for students

The Maplewood Jewish Center held a Purim parade March 14 for its kindergarten and preschool students. Morah Masha provided music for the children to march to as they displayed their colorful costumes, and Sprinkles the Clown ensured there were lots of laughs. And, to finish off the fun, everyone ate some hamantaschen cookies.

