

NJ Jewish News pg 29
Dec 12, 2013

Seventeen families gathered together with J Connection Montclair Area on Nov. 17 to celebrate Hanukkah. Contact Emmy Atlas at 973-929-2968.

Millburn-Short Hills Hadassah cochairs Irene Heifetz and Jody Boches at the Light Up the Night Hanukkah gala on Nov. 16, which benefitted Hadassah Hospital.

Mendel Lubin prepares the outdoor menorah for the Madison Hanukkah lighting on Dec. 1.

Temple Beth O'r/Beth Torah of Clark lit an outdoor menorah on Dec. 2.

Pre-K students at Shalom Yeladim-The Judie Gerstein Early Learning Center at Morristown Jewish Center Beit Yisrael celebrated "Thanksjivukka."

Elie Kapengut, Ron Bejerano, and Daniel Spector crank an olive press during a Hanukkah workshop at Union County Torah Center on Nov. 24.

Randolph High School students celebrated Hanukkah at a Jewish Student Club party run by Rabbi Shmuel Greene of the Partnership for Jewish Learning and Life and organized by student leader Corey Basciano (with hat).

Kinder Gan students at Maplewood Jewish Center help stack food cans for the "Grand CAN" menorah, a collection later donated to area food pantries.

Julie Gelb, a former employee of the Jewish Community Housing Corporation, donated an Israeli-designed menorah to Jewish Federation Plaza in West Orange. She watches as resident Judith Solomon places the candles in the menorah.