

DOI BENEFIT – Ron Sussman won the Texas Hold'em Tournament Grand Prize, a seat in the Borgata Summer Open, which has a guaranteed $500K jackpot, and a two-night stay at the hotel, during the Daughters of Israel Casino Night & Texas Hold 'em Tournament, held March 20 at the Aidekman Campus, Whippany.

and Auction. Proceeds from the event benefit the Livingston temple's programs and activities.

SPECIAL GUEST – Zachary Tully, who serves in the U.S. Army and recently came home from deployment, spoke with students at Temple B'nai Abraham, Livingston, including, from left, Sadie Blumhof, Jacob Heyderman, and Mason Gordon, about mitzvot and tzedaka. The students and their families also assembled care packages for deployed soldiers during TBA's Mitzvah Morning, which will be sent to the soldiers through Bonds of Courage.

A GIFT OF HISTORY – Pine Brook Jewish Center member Jared Rogers received a copy of The Jews of Morris and Sussex, published by MetroWest's Jewish Historical Society, as a bar mitzva gift from the synagogue's sisterhood and men's club. Pine Brook Jewish Center, founded in 1896, is the oldest synagogue in Morris County.

Business Briefs

Dangler Funeral Home in Morris Plains has appointed Christine M. Dangler manager as of April 1.

Send submissions to community@njewishnews.com

ESTER IN WONDERLAND – Dressing for the theme of Ester in Wonderland at Maplewood Jewish Center's annual Purim Party are, from left, back row, Rochel Parnas, Blumi Keselman, Aytan Geschwind, and Ethelyn Geschwind; and, front row, Harry and Sara Kingsley.